Respected experts

We're a team of medical experts; all leaders in our fields and recognised by our profession, peer group and patients as leading clinicians in our areas of specialism. You can be assured that our knowledge, skills, clinical and medico legal practice are, and will remain, up-to-date. We're all currently in clinical practice with extensive NHS experience, in addition to our private practice.

Robust reports

Drawing on our extensive medical experience, you can have confidence that our reports will provide you with an objective, critical, yet succinct, review of the medical evidence. We will focus on expressing an independent view and our reports include an unequivocal conclusion to assist the court in reaching their judgment.

Responsive service

You'll find we're easy to get hold of, by phone/email. And the regularity and number of our nationwide locations of our claimant clinics mean we can offer reduced waiting times for initial review.

A dedicated case manager will get to know you, your client and your case. We all work as an extension to your team, proactively contacting you if we identify a problem and making ourselves available if you need to discuss your case. It's this unique and personal interest in each case that creates the long-lasting relationships that we build with our clients.
